

Figure 38-37. If the abdominal flap excess is insufficient to allow the umbilical site to be fully removed with the excision, the umbilical site can be converted to a vertical ellipse and closed with an intracuticular suture.